INC

The intention of the InziderX exchange is to create a mass movement that is interested in the negotiation of digital assets. The exchange for the 99% - main street.

The forum of the active learning community of the InziderX exchange will be based on Steemit technology model and will have its own utility asset - the INC - InziderX Community Asset.

The INC will be the tool with which the InziderX community will reward the most relevant contributors to the active education forum.

Buyers of the sale as well as those who participate in our promotion rewards program will receive INC first for the same amount of INX purchased or promised.

INCs will be given to INX purchasers and the Promotion Rewards Program participants. They will be distributed at the opening of the InziderX active community forum.

It will be possible to use its INC on the forum as soon as it opens without losing its right on its INX.

10 – Exclusive Support

InziderX loves his community. It's easy to understand that the group, the 99%, is what counts! We want to reward participants in our programs.

Those who like us believe that the future is down to earth and that our decentralized exchange is an important building block of the new structure of the economy.

One where the individual as much as the people are in control of having them without negative outside interference.

For those who share InziderX's vision :

This portion of the bounty is awarded to affiliates and individuals with a significant contribution to the InziderX project.

It is under the company's discretion which affiliates and individuals will be rewarded.
